Talking to Your Kids About Sex:

A Christian Response to the Ontario Sexual Education Curriculum

Every parent wants his or her children to grow up with an understanding of intimacy that is physically healthy, emotionally grounded and morally based. Eryn-Faye will help you come to understand (and articulate) your own value system and learn a solid process for open dialogue from preschool through to adulthood with your children.

Now is the Time:

The New Ontario sexual education curriculum is rolling out across the province in the fall of 2015.

- What is the school going to teach our kids?
- Should parents be proactive or reactive?
- What's the right age to start talking to kids?
- What is "age appropriate" for this information?
- How do we even start the conversation?

A comprehensive, candid and tasteful discussion about one of the most intimidating conversations from renowned speaker, teacher and author:

Eryn-Faye Frans,
Canada's Passion Coach®
